

Raceme: A simple (unbranched) inflorescence with the flowers along the main axis; each flower arises from the axis on its own stalk (see arrows). Racemes are illustrated below.

Baptisia alba (Wild white indigo)

Robinia pseudoacacia (Black locust)

This raceme is pendulous.

Dicentra spectabilis (Lamprocapnos spectabilis): Bleeding heart. Racemes are not always upright as seen here.

