

Flowers are perfect with 4 long, narrow petals, alternating with 4 short sepals. Each flower has 4 stamens alternating with staminodes. Flowers are in axillary clusters.

The alternate leaves are simple and obovate. The margins are wavy to somewhat toothed.

Fruit are woody capsules, rounded with irregular lobes at the end. At maturity, the capsules open and forcibly eject the black seeds

Yiesla's Plant E-Flashcard ©Sharon Yiesla

Produced by Sharon Yiesla, Horticultural Services

Hamamelis vernalis

Vernal Witchhazel (page 1 of 2)

Fall color is yellow. Form is often broad spreading to rounded.

Stems are tan and covered with hairs. Buds are naked (lacking scales). Flower buds are rounded and leaf buds are small and narrow.

